

Report on Excursion/ Picnic

Date 03/03/23

Venue: Duttapukur

An interdepartmental excursion to the outskirts of Kolkata was organized on 03/02/23. The departments of English, History, Sociology and Philosophy jointly planned the picnic at an enclosed location in Duttapukur, about 45 kms away from the college. The objectives of the initiative were as follows:

- To promote intra- as well as interdepartmental bonding so that students so that through such events they are sensitized to the interdisciplinary ties between cultural studies and the broader field of social sciences.
- To encourage students to observe nature and experience life in the outskirts of urban centres.
- To interact with faculty members in an informal environment.

Number of participants: 45 (including faculty members, non-teaching staff).

The students paid an amount of ₹400/- each.

The college disbursed an amount of ₹5000/- as its own contribution. The faculty members contributed the residual amount.

The break-up of cost incurred in the course of organizing the trip. Mr Kaushik Dutta, member of the non-teaching staff was delegated to arrange transport and catering.
