

PROGRAMME OUTCOME AND COURSE OUTCOME OF B.COM IN ACCOUNTS (6 Semester Course):

- Enhancing the student's ability to think critically and enhancing their social interaction skills.
- It aids in cultivating knowledge regarding emerging societal trends in the face of intense competition across all domains.
- To prepare UG B.Com students to confront the demands of the ever-changing corporate environment.
- A commerce degree programme provides a comprehensive understanding of commerce and management principles, as well as insights into the present company and market dynamics influenced by evolving economic trends in society.
- To empower students to initiate entrepreneurial endeavors in areas such as Accounting, Taxation, computerized bookkeeping, share trading, etc.
- The programme equips students with advanced knowledge of planning and executing financial elements at various levels.
- In order to meet the requirements for joining research.
- Develop the skills and knowledge necessary to become independent individuals who can start their own businesses or work in administrative roles inside government organizations at both the central and state levels, as well as in non-governmental organizations.
- The objective is to instruct postgraduate students on the importance of being informed about the latest advancements in their area of study.
- In order to qualify for tests such as SET, NET, CA, CMA, UPSC, etc., one must meet the necessary requirements. PO11. Participate in self-directed and continuous learning, particularly through Massive Open Online Courses (MOOCs) and other internet-based courses, in order to adapt to the constantly evolving work environment.