

PROGRAMME OUTCOME ENGLISH (Honors) UNDER CBCS

- Show proficiency in comprehending contemporary theoretical and literary advancements in the context of English and Cultural studies, and acquaint students with literary and cultural materials as well as literary theory.
- Demonstrate proficiency in comprehending and analyzing many literary genres and stylistic nuances, and exhibit the capacity to write with a critical approach.
- Comprehension of literary movements, styles, and genres, geographical location, human values, literary sensitivity, and geographical location.
- Proficiency in constructing coherent and compelling arguments.
- Acquire knowledge of the diverse linguistic and cultural aspects of India via the study of English literature in India.
- Develop the capacity to analyze and assess literary texts as a subject of academic inquiry and as a component of the broader framework of local and global culture.

PROGRAMME OUTCOME ENGLISH (GENERAL) UNDER CBCS

- The objective is to discern, examine, interpret, and articulate the pivotal concepts, principles, and motifs that manifest in literary and cultural works, and comprehend how these concepts, principles, and motifs shape and influence society and culture, both presently and historically.
- The application of subject knowledge serves as a connection to real-life situations, with an emphasis on showcasing one's proficiency in professional abilities.
- Analytical ability and introspective reasoning Comprehension of values and cultural disparities

PROGRAMME OUTCOME ENGLISH (AECC) UNDER CBCS

- Acquire essential communication skills that are crucial for personal, social, and professional encounters.
- Utilizing topic expertise innovatively within a professional domain. Enhancing professional skills and exploring employment opportunities.
- In order to acquire sufficient proficiency to effectively address the demands of the future job landscape

PROGRAMME OUTCOM ENGLISH (LCC) UNDER CBCS

- Improve proficiency in language and enhance communication abilities.
- Exhibit proficient interpersonal communication skills.
- Demonstrate effective communication skills by utilizing language with precision and appropriateness.
- Familiarity with emerging communication trends.

- Acquire practical resources, advice, and strategies for enhancing letter and report writing abilities, enabling their efficient application in daily business communications.
- Illustrate the specific elements of composing impactful emails.
- Recognize and value the variety of contemporary Indian literary works and the commonalities they share.
- Understand and actively participate in the concept of nation and nationalism in a creative manner.
- Recognize the influence of literary movements on different Indian literatures.
- Thoroughly analyses and actively participate in important social problems such as caste and gender.