PROGRAMME OUTCOMES POLITICAL SCIENCE HONOURS (UNDER CBCS)

This course in B.A. in Political Science:

- Facilitates the students' acquisition of a comprehensive comprehension of political institutions, society, culture, politics, and international relations.
- Enables students to develop a discerning comprehension of Politics, including its nature and current trends in the field.
- Fosters a sense of civic duty and accountability as an Indian citizen.
- Assists individuals in comprehending the societal, political, cultural, and economic aspects that exist in their immediate surroundings as well as outside national borders. This program equips students with the necessary skills and knowledge to pursue various career opportunities in government institutions, research institutes, and also provides a solid foundation for subsequent academic study.
- Assists individuals in acquiring numerous analytical and practical proficiencies, such as research proficiency, teamwork, and effective oral and writing communication. These abilities are highly desirable in the job market.

PROGRAMME OUTCOMES POLITICAL SCIENCE GENEREAL (UNDER CBCS)

This curriculum facilitates the development of students' broad and specialized knowledge in the field of Political Science, while also deepening their awareness of state, national, and worldwide politics. Understanding the structural and functional aspects of political institutions, public policies, economic trends, and social and legal challenges at both the national and international levels is beneficial for students in several ways.

- Participating in several competitive examinations, including the UPSC and state government tests.
- Expands their professional prospects as scholars and diplomats.
- Enhances their analytical prowess while carrying out their duties as administrators.
- Enhances their capacity for empathy as social workers when employed by NGOs and law enforcement authorities.
- Trains individuals to pursue news analysis and journalism as potential career options.