PROGRAMME SCHEDULE FOR SEMINAR ON GRAPHIC NOVEL: POPULAR LITERATURE AND NEW FORMS OF TELLING (26/04/2023)

Time	Description	Moderator/Speaker
8.30 am	Key-note Address	Dr.Chandrima Karmakar, Assistant Professor, Department of English and Joint Convenor, Study Circle and Seminar Committee.
8.45 am	Inaugural Address	Dr.Sima Chakrabarti, Chief Patron and Principal of the College.
8.55 am	Speakers' Bionotes	Prof.Abu Farah Hoque,Assistant Professor, Department of English.

The seminar was inaugurated by the Jt.convenor of the Seminar and Study Circle Committee,Dr.Chandrima Karmakar, Asst.Professor , Department of English.She also delivered a key-note address introducing the the topic to the audience.As the Principal was not available on that particular date, the senior most faculty member, Dr Sumita Choudhury gave the welcome address as Proof.Abu Farah Hoque coordinated the session.The primary focus of the seminar was the component on Popular Literature prescribed in the CBCS UG syllabus of the University of Calcutta.Popular Literature, especially graphic novel has received special emphasis in current curriculum and the lectures addressed a wide range of issues related to the area.Mr.Saurav Dutta addressed graphic form of narration as one of the oldest forms of telling; beginning with cave paintings,to illustrated Bibles and the AI powered newest templates of graphic narratives.He demonstrated how a graphic novel takes form through various stages of it's composition.Mr.Harsho Mohan Chattoraj spoke about the subversive potential of such telling when the politics of re-presentation and representation combine to critique existing power structures. This was followed by an interactive session with students posing relevant questions, clarifying their doubts about the genre.The TIC, Dr Chaitali Pal, expressed her gratitude to the speakers for their academic insights. Prof.Abu Farah Hoque gave the formal vote of thanks.
