

Study visit to RAJA RAM MOHUN ROY MUSEUM on 26TH April 2024

On 26th April 2024, the Education Department of MAHARANI KASISWARI COLLEGE with students of semester 6(H+G) with professors has visited Raja Ram Mohun Museum at 11am.

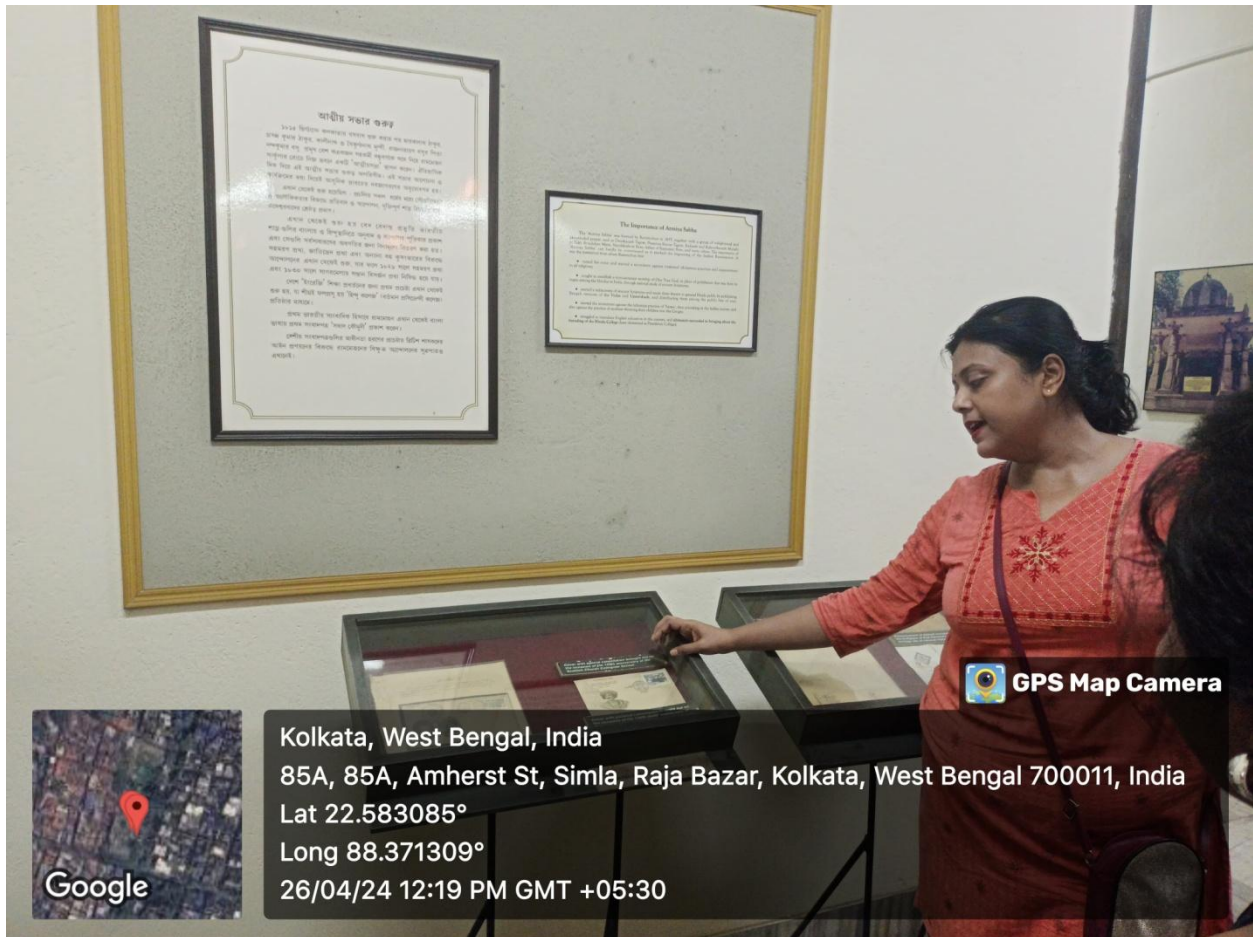

Students with professors at the entrance of Raja Ram Mohun Museum

The museum is a three storeyed structure of colonial style architecture of 19th century. It was the residence of his two sons Radha Prasad and Rama Prasad with their families. This property was purchased from Francis Mendes for Rs 1300.00 IN 1815 by Raja Ram Mohun Roy.

Students and Teachers in front of colonial style architecture building

This building was known as Simla House. In this house weekly meeting of Atmiya Sabha was held by Raja Ram Mohun Roy. In 1830, he disposed of all his properties in Calcutta except Simla House to meet the expenses of his journey abroad. This house continued to be in the possession of descendants till 1960. In the year 1972, on the occasion of the bi-centenary birth anniversary celebration of Rammohun Roy, the Rammohun College initiated a move to acquire the building with its adjoining lands measuring 76 cottahs. Rammohun College took the initiative to rescue the house from its wretched plight and with active assistance of the State and Central Government acquired it in 1986.

Guide explaining importance of clipping to students

The museum has arranged the guide for information in the galleries. There are two galleries in second floor and one gallery in third floor.

The exhibits in the museum may be classified under the following heads:

- Books
- Commemorative Items
- Photographs
- Paintings and Sketches
- Panels and Dioramas
- Period furniture
- Death mask of Rammohun

The museum has attire of Ram Mohun to depict the style of living at that time and reflect the style that was known at that time.

The students had taken the notes and have question regarding Atmiya Sabha and discussed it with Guide and enriched their knowledge. The place where Atmiya Sabha was held during Raja Ram Mohun Roy was in the ground floor. This is a nice place where various meeting with well known person of that time held there.

Ground floor where Atmiya Sabha held

It had also a large collection of stamps, and historical documents related to Ram Mohun. Among the photographs the houses associated with him, one at Radha nagar, memorial at his ancestral place, funeral document of him and other items.

Pictures of contemporaries of Rammohun in 19th century in 3rd floor

In the third floor there are also paintings and sketches of followers and contemporaries of Rammohun in the 19th century, notable of them being Prince Dwarkanath Tagore, Tarachand Chakraborty etc.

We visit each corner of the museum and even seen the servant quarters of Raja Ram Mohun Roy's house. But being a sultry day the students enjoyed and enriched themselves from 11.00am to 1.30pm.
