

A Session on Financial Market, A special initiative towards of enrichment of students' knowledge on financial system

Date of programme: 16.01.2024

Place: At the room no-08 (seminar room) of the Maharani Kasiswari College, Kolkata.

Department: Department of Commerce

No. of students participated: 76

In this session, 76 students of B.com 1st semester had participated. They were thoroughly informed with the practical view of financial market operations and its role and progress in India over the past decades. The importance of a sound structured financial system and its significance towards the country's goal to achieve economic development were discussed. The session had been very much informative and relevant for the commerce students. Students had acquired substantial information and interest from this session which will surely help them to decide the future course of study and choose as a field of future career.

