

Departmental Picnic on 12/03/2019

The Departments of English and History collaborated to organise an inter-departmental picnic on 12/03/2019. The location was Makardah, a small hamlet near Domjur, Howrah. As the spring breeze announced the arrival of the season, thirty-three students from the department of English fourteen from the department of History along with faculty members and two members of administrative staff set out on a bus to travel a distance of 24 kms to the spot. Light refreshment was served in the bus as breakfast awaited them at the venue amidst canopies trees.

The objectives of the picnic was to:-

- i) strengthen inter-departmental bond beyond the boundaries of the academia.
- ii) gain momentary relief from the heavy burden of an examination -centric system of learning.
- iii) get an idea of alternative living and getting familiar with the rural natural surroundings around the margins of the cityscape.
- iv) come close to nature and feel inspired to reimagine one's creativity.

Rita Chatterjee
Department of English.

The notice for the picnic was posted beforehand and consent letters sought from parents. A contribution of ₹350/- per student was received from students. Teachers contributed both in cash and kind. A sumptuous fare was served for breakfast (poori, sabji, veg pakora and coffee) following which groups of students set about exploring the nature resort. The pond, the greenery, the birds offered a landscape that soothed the tired urban eyes. Piping hot lunch was served at 2 pm sharp as the catering vendor cooked the food on spot.As the teachers shed their habitual reserve, students shared personal anecdotes with them.

STUDENTS AND TEACHERS WITH THE BANNER OF THE PICNIC

As the sun set on the horizon, the entire group, refreshed and enthused by the day outing, boarded the bus to take the return journey towards the college.They danced to popular music and enjoyed their journey back having made new friends.
