Sunanda Mukherjee.

was “Mystery of Missing Women”. Dr Roy is the head of the Department of Economics, Rishi Bankim Chandra College, Naihati. Dr. Roy has had a very long career in teaching and research. He has had a 26 years extensive teaching experience and has presented his papers greatly.

The session started with welcome speech by Smt Sunanda Mukherjee, where the speaker of the special talk was warmly welcomed and introduced. This was followed by a short speech by our principal ma’am Dr. Sima Chakrabarti where she welcomed our esteemed speaker and commenced the session. The special talk was attended by the faculty members of different departments and the students from all semesters of different departments. Dr. Roy’s session was very interesting and enlightening. He explained his topic in such an illuminating way making it easier for the participants to understand the concept and knowledge.

The session became a very interactive one as the participants started to share their thoughts and the speaker answered all their questions with more clarity. The session was indeed enjoyed by the huge group of participants that were present for the talk. At the end this program Smt Sunanda Mukherjee gave the vote of thanks acknowledging Dr Roy for sparing time from his busy schedule to share with us the knowledge and concept he is so passionate about.
